This document is an EXAMPLE of a degree path for Philosophy majors. Students are strongly encouraged to meet regularly with an academic advisor to work through their own unique degree plan. Students should keep the following in mind:

- Students pursuing this degree complete at least 33 credits within the major, earning a minimum grade of 2.00 (C) in each course. At least 21 credits of PHIL courses taken should be at the 300 level or above, including at least 3 credits in either PHIL 421 Seminar (topics vary) or PHIL 422 Honors Seminar (if enrolled in the honors program in the major).
 - Please note that requirements for the Philosophy major vary for previous catalog years. Students can check the requirements appropriate to their own catalog year via the Archive link on the University Catalog home page.
- Students interested in law school may pursue the major concentration in Philosophy and Law. Students interested in philosophy, policy, and public service may pursue the major concentration in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics (PPE).
- Students are strongly encouraged to group some of their general and upper-level electives together so as to take at least one minor. Please consult an academic advisor for guidance.
- Students should select Mason Core courses from the approved list in the 2018-2019 Catalog
