This document is an EXAMPLE of a degree path for Religious Studies students. There are many different ways to complete the degree, and students are strongly encouraged to meet with an Academic Advisor to discuss their unique path. Students should keep the following in mind:

• Physical Education Courses do not count towards credit hours

• Satisfactory grades are required to receive credit for a course

• Students should select Mason Core courses from the approved Provost's list

• Students should meet with their Academic Advisor at least once a semester to plan their semester schedule

*Students may choose Religious studies related electives from courses in religious studies, anthropology, art history, history, or a scriptural language (Arabic, Biblical Hebrew, Chinese, Classical Greek, Latin, or Sanskrit).

Students may choose Religious Studies electives at the 300-400 level. They may use up to 6 credits of a scriptural language for this requirement.
