This minor is designed to provide students with an understanding of the ways in which humans change over time. Coursework provides for a broad foundation in psychology across the lifespan while also allowing for students to focus on a developmental period (e.g. childhood).

- <sup>1</sup> When content is developmental, with approval.
- <sup>2</sup> When topic is developmental, when approved by Psychology Associate Chair of Undergraduate Studies.

Admissions & Policies

Policies

Eight credits of coursework must be unique to the minor and students must complete all coursework with a minimum GPA of 2.00. For policies governing all minors, see AP5.3.4 Minors.
